DECLASSIFIED

SUNDAY
MARCH 28, 1954

We took a walk in the park this morning, and then had the Robert de Lesseps, Tony Pawson, Griselda Martineau, and Hervé Alphand for lunch. Hervé and I discussed various matters which have been covered by recent telegrams.

Nancy left in the late afternoon and E. and I remained for the night.

I started on a possible telegram to the Department but we decided not to send it as such but to communicate it as an informal letter in somewhat the following terms:
